Summer Camp
New Hope UMC Preschool

This summer join us at New Hope UMC Preschool for learning and time to fellowship. We will explore our environment through art, science, and language activities, make new friends, and learn about God's love for us.

Each day we will use our creativity and imaginations and have lots of fun together!

Look inside for further information.

The Summer Camp will offer classes for ages 2 years old through completed 2nd grade.

The children will be assigned to classes appropriate for their ages.

June - Come join us and learn about various cultures and how others praise God throughout the World.

July - July we will be learning about the USA. We will find out how our country is different from region to region and about what makes North Carolina such a special state!

August - Our theme for August will be musical instruments. We will focus on the woodwind, percussion, brass, and stringed instruments.

All children between 2 years old and rising 3rd grade may attend.
